

K-Love radio serves a segment of the population in our community that does not want to see it disappear. The effect on the local community would be undesirable if K-love were to be displaced and I believe that K-Love serves a segment of our community. It is listener supported, validating the interest of our community.